MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

25X1 SUBJECT [REDACTED]-Retirement

1. This memorandum is for your information.

25X1 2. [REDACTED] retired from the Army in 1962 and was given a five-year reserve appointment by the Agency. While in his present assignment at Fort Bragg, his reserve appointment was extended not to exceed 30 January 1969. He will be 60 years of age on 9 January 1969.

25X1 3. The Office of Training has no plans to request further extension of [REDACTED] reserve appointment; therefore he will automatically leave the Agency on or before 30 January 1969.

25X1 4. The record does not show whether or not [REDACTED] desires to retire as a civilian. The Personnel Officer of the Office of Training has asked [REDACTED] to talk with him about his retirement, but so far this has not been done.

5. Training has no specific replacement in mind for [REDACTED] at this time.

Sally called me today and said that

Colonel White returned the original of this memo to Mr. Bannerman with a note concerning a replacement, approval by DCI, etc.

Can you help me? I checked Registry and the original of the memo is charged to you.
